

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the last term of 2017. Term 4 is the last step in the primary school journey for our Year 6 students. No doubt the students are feeling a mix of excitement and perhaps are a little nervous as they prepare for the next step in their educational journey. At the other end of the educational journey I was very pleased to meet many parents and incoming 2018 Kindergarten students at Monday's first orientation session. Term 4 is always very busy with many events planned for the students. I wish all students a productive and enjoyable term.

Year 6 Gifts

I would like to thank the Year 6 students and parents for their fundraising efforts this year. The Year 6 students have already used some of the money raised to purchase two gifts for the school. During the school holidays, both gifts were installed in the playground.

1. An Acknowledgement of Country plaque near the Junction Road gate.
2. Giant school pencil installation to represent Respect, Responsibility and Resilience in the Infants Courtyard.

Opportunity Class Results

Opportunity Class placement results for students seeking entry to OC in Year 5, 2018 have now been sent to parents and schools. Summer Hill PS school students have been offered a position or are on the waiting list for OC classes at several schools including Summer Hill OC, Ashfield, Wilkins, Balmain, Georges Hall and Gosford. Congratulations to all students involved in the OC process.

Selective High School Year 7 2019 applications now open

Parents wishing to apply for their child to attend a NSW Government Selective High School for Year 7 2019 can attend an information evening at SHPS on Wed 25 October, 6pm - 7pm in the School Hall. For more details refer to <https://shsocplacement.org.au/registration/>

A comprehensive High School Information evening for parents and carers will be held in early 2018.

2018 New Student Orientation Days

This week marked the first of three orientation sessions for students coming to Summer Hill PS in 2018. We welcomed 90 Kindergarten students, students from Yeo Park entering Year 3 in 2018 and students entering all classes from 1-6 in 2018. Students were given the opportunity to meet teachers and to interact with their peers. We look forward to our second and third sessions in the coming weeks.

Year 5 Leadership Process for Year 6 - 2018 Leadership positions

The Year 5 students are well underway in the leadership process to determine the Year 6, 2018 leadership positions. Students have nominated for up to three leadership positions. This week, Minister interviews will be held to determine the students who will proceed to the next round of the process. For details, please refer to the Student Leadership Guidelines on the Summer Hill PS website. www.summerhill-p.schools.nsw.edu.au/documents/5401229/5413502/student_leadership_roles_guidelines.pdf

Check out this Dynamic Dialogue by Ben C, Grade 6

Inspired by 'Goodbye, Sir!' Portrait of John Vallance (Sydney Grammar Headmaster for 18 years), painted by the Boys of Sydney Grammar preparatory school, a finalist in the 2017 Archibald Exhibition.

"No, Mr Huntley-Blackstone, I do not want your autograph. I am here to discuss the behaviour of your son."

"Ah, of course he is perfect, Vallance" Smiled Reginald Huntley-Blackstone. John Vallance had the urge to add "far from" but he suppressed it. He decided upon the gentler path. "Your son has a, well unique attitude towards learning," Vallance said slowly, knowing very well that Wilfred Huntley-Blackstone was the school bully, thug and drug dealer all rolled into one, and probably wouldn't have had the faintest idea about learning, even if it slapped him in the face.

The feeling in the room had changed. An expression of menace crept onto Reginald Huntley-Blackstone's shiny red face, punctuated with beads of sweat.

"Sir! Are you suggesting that my son, Wilfred Huntley-Blackstone the 3rd, son of the Duke and Duchess of Australia is not top of the class! How dare you. The pain he will feel when he gets home will be beyond unimaginable!" screamed Mr Huntley Blackstone, his voice filled with rage, his head swollen to twice the normal size.

The principal might have mentioned that Wilfred was bottom of the school, but didn't feel it was the right time.

"Good day to you sir!" Reginald Huntley-Blackstone screamed, and with that, he stormed from the room.

YEAR 4

4TK have been using persuasive and dissuasive writing as part of advertising a product. Here are some examples;

"If you like stale, hard and mouldy chips then Smyth chips are the right type for you. Go to your local supermarket and buy the most stale, hard and mouldy chips you'll ever taste. Smyths chips."
(Grace and Aiyang).

"What is the brand that offers nothing but the delicious gourmet taste that your dog can't resist? That's right....XYZ dog food. The taste your dog can't resist." (Jio and Olivia)

"Are you tired of sleeping uncomfortably? Yes? Well, you're not in luck because ABC mattresses are bringing you the most uncomfortable bed ever! And it is only 7 million dollars. What a price!" (Lucas and Charlie).
